Code of Conduct

1. OBJECTIVE

The Orvion IntelliAct corporate culture, the law, and internal regulations govern our business conduct. At all times, we familiarize ourselves and strive to comply with them. To facilitate this, essential aspects of our internal regulations are summarized in this Code of Conduct ("Our Code"). Our Code reflects our commitment to the law and internal regulations. It serves as a guideline to conduct our everyday business in line with our values.

2. APPLICABILITY/SCOPE OF COVERAGE

All permanent employees, trainees, will be covered by this leave policy. All new joiners will be covered from the date of joining. Will be updated in regular intervals with suitable communication will be shared to all.

3. OUR MORAL COMPASS

Our Code is a guide to navigating the risks we face and the choices we make in our work at Orvion IntelliAct. Our Code cannot cover every situation, but it does help us to find answers and to report any concerns. Third parties may not derive any rights from our Code.

4. OUR MOTIVATION

Invented for life: We want our products to spark enthusiasm, improve the quality of life, and help conserve natural resources.

5. WE LIVE OUR VALUES

The foundation of our corporate culture is a clear commitment to our values, accountability, and above all, compliance with applicable law. We make responsible decisions while considering the effects on society and the environment.

6. OUR VALUES – WHAT WE BUILD ON: FUTURE AND RESULT FOCUS

Anything and Everything in Automation

Code of Conduct

We focus on results and securing our future. This also creates a sound basis for the social initiatives of the company.

7. FAIRNESS AND RESPECT

We deal fairly and respectfully with our colleagues and business partners, and view this as a cornerstone of our corporate success.

8. INITIATIVE AND DETERMINATION

We act on our own initiative, take entrepreneurial responsibility, and pursue our goals with determination.

9. DIVERSITY, EQUITY, INCLUSION

We appreciate and encourage diversity, equity, and inclusion for the enrichment they bring, and see this as essential for our success.

10. OPENNESS AND TRUST

We work and collaborate in a spirit of trust and communicate openly.

11. RESPONSIBILITY AND SUSTAINABILITY

We act prudently and responsibly for the benefit of society and the environment.

12. RELIABILITY, CREDIBILITY, LEGALITY

We promise only what we can deliver, accept agreements as binding, and respect and observe the law in all our business transactions.

13. OUR RESPONSIBILITY FOR ACTING LEGALLY

Code of Conduct

We always follow applicable law in all of Orvion IntelliAct's business activities. We do not mislead customers, government agencies, or the public, nor do we participate in any deceit by third parties. We always observe the principle of legality.

Law violations can cause considerable business consequences including fines or claims for damages. We can also face personal consequences, including fines and imprisonment. We always act lawfully, whether this results in an economic benefit for Orvion Intelliact or not. Respecting Orvion IntelliAct's values and following the law take precedence over economic interests and even customer wishes.

14. WHAT IS APPLICABLE LAW?

Examples include global tax, customs, and export control regulations including sanctions, competition and antitrust law, anti-corruption and anti-money laundering law, or any national, state or local law or regulation that applies to our business operations.

15. RESPONSIBILITY OF ALL EMPLOYEE

In accordance with the Compliance Requirement, we are all responsible for conducting our business activities legally, responsibly, and fairly. We aspire to learn from our mistakes, see them as a part of our innovation culture, and openly point them out. If we are unsure about the Compliance Requirement and its impact on our daily work, we contact our supervisors, or the legal department before we take action.

Any violation of applicable law, our Code, or other internal regulations can result in disciplinary action. For example, this can include termination of employment, withholding of discretionary compensation (e.g., bonuses), and holding violators responsible for any damages.

We engage in dialogue on Compliance issues, seek to address risks openly, and participate in training on relevant Compliance topics. We do not follow the instructions of supervisors that are unlawful. We address illicit behavior or actions that do not seem legal to us.

16. SPECIAL RESPONSIBILITY OF SUPERVISORS

Supervisors ensure there are no violations of applicable law or internal regulations, which could have been prevented or impeded through appropriate controls. Supervisors ensure that compliance with applicable law and internal regulations is continuously and properly monitored in their particular area of responsibility. Supervisors also ensure that their associates are aware that violations can lead to disciplinary consequences, regardless of their role or hierarchy. There are no exceptions for prestige or power.

Code of Conduct

It is important that supervisors act as role models for their associates, inform them about the rules of our Code, discuss these rules with them, and are available for questions or guidance about our Code's principles or other internal regulations. Supervisors are the driving force behind the Compliance Dialogs conducted routinely in their departments.

If supervisors receive information about possible violations of the Compliance Requirement by associates or third parties, they contact the responsible department. They forward legally significant matters to the person responsible for legal advice.

17. AVOIDING CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

As Orvion IntelliAct Employees, we act in the sole interests of Orvion IntelliAct and in accordance with the Orvion IntelliAct's values. To do so, we strictly separate private interests from business interests in order to avoid potential conflicts with Orvion IntelliAct's interests. In case of doubt, we inform our supervisor or, if the supervisor could also be in a conflict of interest, another "neutral" person (for example, the next-level supervisor) in writing.

18. WHAT IS A CONFLICT OF INTEREST

The risk that the professional judgment or actions of associates are influenced by personal interests to the extent that business decisions are no longer made for the sole benefit of Orvion IntelliAct.

19. ENGAGING BUSINESS PARTNERS FOR PRIVATE PURPOSES

If we are directly involved in the awarding or settlement of orders for Orvion IntelliAct with a business partner, further engagement with the same business partner for personal gain may give rise to a potential conflict of interest. In these cases, such engagements are only allowed in cases where a conflict of interest, or the appearance thereof, is excluded.

20. RESPONSIBLE HANDLING OF COMPANY PROPERTY

We handle the company's property responsibly. The assets of Orvion IntelliAct serve to achieve our company's success and may be used only within the scope of our internal regulations.

Code of Conduct

21. PROPER BOOKKEEPING AND ACCOUNTING

All reports, whether internal or external, must be complete and provide a transparent picture of the current financial and economic situation. We adhere to the principles of proper bookkeeping and accounting, which require data and records to be complete, comprehensible, and, in alignment with materiality considerations, correct and system-compliant.

22. WE ACT CORRECTLY – BECAUSE IT’S RIGHT

We are committed to acting legally and ethically at all times. We are convinced that honest and responsible conduct is always the right thing to do. This is what distinguishes us at Orvion IntelliAct. By acting on this commitment, we are making an important contribution to customer satisfaction and our long-term success. Invented for life.

23. CONSEQUENCES OF VIOLATIONS

We are all bound by the principles set forth in our Code. We do our best every day. If we have questions or doubts, we ask.

Violations of our Code endanger Orvion IntelliAct’s long-term success. They damage our reputation and can lead to other serious consequences: damages or penalties, including criminal consequences, order blocks, or other reprimands by public authorities that are detrimental to our business.

We therefore expect every associate to comply with our Code.

24. MAKING ETHICAL DECISIONS

We always strive to make ethical decisions in accordance with our values. In case of doubt, we seek advice, for example by checking our internal regulations, and receive support from our supervisors, the Human Resources departments, or from the Compliance department and other responsible departments. For legal questions, we may contact the legal department directly.

For many topics addressed in this Code, specific internal regulations exist and must also be observed. In cases of perceived conflicts with local laws or other internal regulations, or if any other questions should arise, we contact the Compliance department, the legal department, or other responsible departments for guidance.

Code of Conduct

We keep ourselves informed about current topics relating to this Code of Conduct, and we participate in applicable training.

25. DATA PROTECTION AND INFORMATION SECURITY

We ensure that in all business processes and products, data protection regulations are observed, and all necessary information security measures are implemented. This means we comply with applicable laws and respect relevant contractual obligations.

We seek to protect relevant information and personal data in particular against unauthorized disclosure, access, manipulation, and loss through the application of risk-adequate, technical, and organizational measures. We apply these information security measures in the selection, use, and operation of IT solutions closely coordinated with the applicable cybersecurity standards.

26. NO CORRUPTION

We do not tolerate any form of corruption. Our business decisions are based on objective and well-founded reasons. We attract our business partners and customers with the high quality of our products and services, and not through undue influence.

In our business dealings, we refrain from any form of corruption and any attempt of undue influence. We do not offer gifts, hospitality, or other gratuities with the intent to gain an undue advantage. We object to any payments that appear intended to satisfy any form of corruption. We strive to ensure that business partners – or any other parties who maintain business relationships with us, work for us, or intend to work for us – do not engage in any form of corruption or in any actions or efforts made to exert undue influence. We oblige agents or other intermediaries that we engage to procure orders or permits neither to pay or to accept bribes, nor to grant any undue benefits.

Any attempts to unfairly influence our decisions must be declined. In case of possible violations, we report our observations and take appropriate action.

27. CONDUCT TOWARDS PUBLIC OFFICIALS

We do not provide or offer anything of value to any public.

Official to obtain, retain, or to secure business or improper advantage, or to improperly influence a public official's actions or decisions. Gifts, hospitality, and other gratuities in interactions with public officials are handled extremely restrictively. Even the appearance of an influence must be avoided.

Code of Conduct

We also do not make facilitation payments to expedite routine and non-discretionary government actions, e.g., for issuing permits or handling of custom procedures. Such payments are prohibited at Orvion IntelliAct

28. DONATIONS AND SPONSORING

Orvion IntelliAct contributes to civic society by making considered donations to support causes like climate action, sustainability, digital education for disadvantaged children and young people, the promotion of democracy and tolerance, as well as social concerns. We donate without self-interest. By contrast, sponsorship measures are part of our overall communications strategy. They are intended to support the achievement of company-relevant goals, such as product sales, reputation building, or the recruitment of qualified associates.

Our objective is to make a clear distinction between our donations and sponsorship activities. We refrain from promising or granting a donation or sponsorship to unduly influence public officials, business partners, or other third parties. In addition, we do not obtain an undue favor or advantage in return of a donation or sponsorship. We also reject respective offers to do so.

Code of Conduct

29. DISCLAIMER

This Policy is not intended to create contractual obligations. Employment with the Company is at will, and where otherwise permitted by law, which means that either the Company or the employee may terminate the employment relationship at any time and for any reason, without notice. The Company reserves the right to modify, amend, or terminate this Policy at any time. This Policy supersedes any prior policies of Orvion IntelliAct Automation Pvt Ltd.
